

Volunteer Needed to Organize the Los Toros Farmers Market

Are you interested in helping raise funds for the mission of St. Joseph Parish in the village of Los Toros in the Dominican Republic?

Do you have good communication and organizational skills, and the ability to collaborate with other volunteers to get a project done?

- The commitment is for the summer of 2025.
- No travel required.
- No need to speak Spanish.
- Organizers of previous years' Farmers Markets are available for your guidance.
- You will have the flexibility to set the frequency and other specifics of markets. You decide the specifics, such as the frequency of markets (weekly, monthly, after which Masses), what products to sell, etc.
- Your presence at every market is not required. You will ensure that sufficient volunteers will be present for each scheduled market.
- The Los Toros Farmers' Market raised $6,125 last summer for the Los Toros Mission.
